B. The additional information is added to page 5, under Eligibility and Program Requirements following the last sentence of the second paragraph:

Agencies that can show proof of application for a Child Abuse Prevention License will be considered for funding if they receive final approval of the license within 90 days of the date of application for such license. A copy of the application must be submitted with the proposal. The contract cannot be initiated until final proof of the issuance of the license is received by DCS from the agency. Failure to show proof of Child Abuse Prevention Licensing within the time limit will result in the agency becoming ineligible for funding.

Applicants should review the Child Abuse Prevention Licensing Rules for additional information on the requirements, including certain exclusions of specific types of agencies that are not required to receive the license. Any questions regarding the licensing rules should be directed to DCS Licensing staff.
